

JUDGES PUT UP BUT TAMMANY

Independence League Not Entirely Satisfied With the Men Selected.

WILL WATCH REPUBLICANS

LOYALTY TO HEARST THE TEST OF DEMOCRACY.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Democracy of New York county tonight nominated a judiciary ticket that was seemingly intended to be a compromise between the adherents of old line Democrats and candidates favored by the Independence League. The ticket, however, has not proved entirely satisfactory to the followers of Mr. Hearst, and a statement issued by the league late tonight hints that the Tammany ticket may not be endorsed in full.

It was understood that the league wished to be represented on the ticket by five candidates acceptable to the party, in that event the league would expect to support the nominations made. Only two of tonight's candidates can, however, be said to be representative of the league. They are Judge Seabury and John Ford, named for the supreme court. Recorder Goff, however, is believed not to be objectionable to the league.

Statement of League.

The following statement was issued by the executive committee of the Independence league late tonight:

"It has been the desire of the executive committee of the league to secure nomination of a non-partisan judiciary ticket. The ticket named by the Democratic convention tonight contains the names of some satisfactory men and the names of some not satisfactory."

"The Independence league will watch the action of the Republican convention with interest."

The nominations made by the convention tonight are:

Supreme Court.

For supreme court justice—Leonard A. Geigerich, renominated.
John W. Goff, now recorder of the court of general sessions.
Samuel Seabury, a city judge.
Charles W. Dayton, former postmaster.

Peter A. Hendrick.
John Ford, former state senator.
Mitchell L. Brieger, former sheriff.
John J. Brady, now commissioner of taxes.

M. Warley Platt, member of Tammany hall judiciary committee.
Charles W. Guy, assistant corporation counsel.

General Sessions.

For judges of the court of general sessions—Francis S. McEvoy, justice of special sessions.
Thomas T. Crane, tenement house commissioner.

For surrogate—Frank T. Fitzgerald, renominated.

At the convention Senator Grady moved the adoption of a set of resolutions endorsing the platform of Buffalo convention, and pledging support to the candidates named on the Democratic state ticket, which were adopted.

City Magistrate James G. Walsh, in nominating Recorder Goff, declared that the test of Democracy in 1906 was loyalty to William Randolph Hearst.

SKILL VS. STRENGTH IN DRIVING A HORSE.

(Outing.)

Strength has nothing to do with hands—or rather, it is a distinct drawback to their acquirement. The weakling must use other means to attain his ends; the strong man disdains the delicate effects which make for everything of the best in horsemanship. A little, eighty-pound boy will control perfectly a rattle-brained race horse that no man could hold by main strength; a slight woman will guide four horses as few men can—it is the combination of the attributes named that enables them to do it.

Appropriate biting has much to do with success, but the novice is apt to proceed to the extreme of severity in his desire to get that delicacy of touch and promptness of response which he thinks should follow sharp restraint. The reverse of this should always be the rule, and the horse should be constantly tried with lighter biting effects until the least possible restraint is employed. Hands and mouths vary from day to day, according to various circumstances of irritability and sensitiveness, and no one arrangement is likely to be for the best interests of both rider and quadruped. A bag and horse is always a light mouthed horse, and it is "up to" the driver or rider to find what best brings about this result. No balanced horse can pull; no puller is in balance.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Los Angeles, Oct. 10.—The Tonopah & Tidewater railroad, which is being constructed from Ludlow, on the Santa Fe railway, north through San Bernardino to two counties to Beatty, Nev., announces that it will commence the handling of freight and passengers to the present terminus of line, Oct. 15. "This is the line known as 'The Borax Smith' railroad, which is being built by M. Smith of Oakland. The road taps Smith's borax mines and makes tributary to Los Angeles an extensive mineral territory of Nevada."

TWO MEN KILLED.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Two men are dead and five others injured as the result of an explosion of a blast furnace in the plant of the Illinois Steel company in north Chicago last night.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

STOLYPIN'S CIRCULAR

Russian Premier Takes Another Move Against the Constitutional Democrats.

PARTY OUTSIDE THE PALE

VIBORG MANIFESTO GIVEN AS THE CAUSE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 10.—Another battery was turned today on the position of the Constitutional Democrats, in the open warfare which Premier Stolypin is waging against the majority party in the last parliament, in the form of a circular to the provisional government in regard to the famine relief, directing the officials to remove from the zemstvos and other local organizations all persons endeavoring to conduct electioneering against the administration under cover of relief work and not to hesitate to close the zemstvos when necessary, though the circular admits that the famine in many provinces is so severe that the government can hope to cope with it only with the aid of these institutions. The measure is in addition to the steps taken against the signers of the Viborg manifesto, whom the government has excluded from the provincial nobility, zemstvo organizations and city councils.

The real attitude of the Constitutional Democrats at the Helmsingors convention is dictated largely by these and other hostile measures, including the holy synod's instruction to the clergy to preach and work against the enemies of society, and a circular forbidding government employees to belong to Constitutional Democratic or other opposition parties, and ordering the dismissal of persistent members.

Premier Stolypin's organ says the campaign against the Constitutional Democrats is justified by the Viborg manifesto, which it declares, placed the Constitutional Democrats outside the pale of legal parties, but it is said that the premier's action will probably only have the effect of "driving the opposition underground."

In view of the financial situation heavy reductions are to be made in the over-manned government, it having been determined that 20 per cent of the employees shall be discharged from some of the departments. This is creating more enemies for the administration.

The draft of the law providing for religious freedom, which has been delayed for revision as again passed by the council of ministers. The Strana, though an opposition paper, thoroughly approves of the draft. It declares that it is the only satisfactory law which the administration has yet elaborated.

PARTY GOING TO PIECES.

Constitutional Democrats No Longer Able to Agree.

Helmsingors, Oct. 10.—At today's session of the Constitutional Democratic convention the committee's resolution proclaiming the impossibility of passive resistance was adopted, 84 yeas to 44 noes. The minority amendment recommending order for passive resistance was rejected by 83 yeas to 53 noes.

The congress has shown a strict weakness in the party which is highly dangerous in view of the approaching electoral campaign, and this in spite of the influence toward cohesion resulting from governmental persecutions. The four days was booked to make for a battle, and the differences of opinion regarding the Viborg manifesto, which the conservatives, on the other hand, believe, should be publicly disavowed as a matter of the extreme radicals, on the other hand, demand the reformation of the manifesto in the form of an immediate proclamation of the financial and military boycott of the government. The resolution of the central committee, which justifies the adoption of the manifesto at Viborg, but finds it impracticable to present it to apply its principles to the refusal to pay taxes or grant recruits, has few friends, and was accepted only as a makeshift to avoid the immediate disruption, supported by thirty delegates from the Volga and south, to boycott the government, was rejected, as was a proposal made by M. Petrunkevich, the central leader, to eliminate the paragraph dealing with the present expediency and leaving in the resolution only commendation for the signers of the Viborg document.

BRYAN IN MISSOURI.

Kansas City, Oct. 10.—William J. Bryan was booked to make four speeches in Missouri today, at Nevada, Clinton, Sedalia and Columbia.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 10.—William J. Bryan arrived here this afternoon. He was met at the station by 2,000 persons and escorted to the Nevada theatre, where he spoke to a crowd that taxed the capacity of the house.

Wounded Duck Commits Suicide.

That a duck committed suicide by drowning to avoid death by a hunter's gun is the story told by A. T. Moon.

Last Sunday Mr. Moon with a couple of friends visited the grounds of the West Lake Duck club, of which he is a member, for a day's outing. He came home that evening with the limit and a duck story.

While hunting on the shores of the lake Mr. Moon took shot at a flock of ducks, and one of them was killed. He saw at a glance that it was dead, and he was evidently discerning his motive, dove under water. Mr. Moon humanely decided to put the wounded ducks out of their misery, and shot one as it started to swim away. Walking toward the shore, which was within ten feet of the shore in about a foot of water, he raised his automatic gun to fire, when the duck, evidently discerning his motive, dove under water. Mr. Moon could see the duck plainly in the water as he went to the bottom and fastened his bill on some grass roots growing there. Here is the rest of the story as he tells it:

"I was surprised at the duck's action and held the gun to my shoulder watching the duck so I could kill him as he came to the surface. To my surprise he remained there, and after a few seconds I lowered the gun and remarked to myself that I could stand there as long as the duck could remain under water. I waited and the duck still held to the bottom. I shifted my aim and fired at the other, but the duck in plain sight never offered to come to the surface. After waiting several minutes, my curiosity got the better of me and I waded into the water and reaching down the full length of my arm, I grabbed the duck. To my surprise he did not firmly grasp the grass roots and I had to tear myself loose from the bottom of the lake to bring the duck to the surface. When I brought him up he was quite dead, but had a death grip on the grass roots. I thought perhaps his head had become snarled in the grass, and as he was dead I brought him up and examined him. He had been drowned, but an examination showed the duck was perfectly free if he had only loosened his grip on the roots. You can never convince me this duck did not commit suicide. He was only slightly wounded, but acted as if the dead duck was his mate, and I believe he preferred suicide to capture or the loss of his mate."

VIBORG CONVENTION HAS BEEN GOT OUT

Storm of Protest Against Such Action by Members of British Parliament.

SAFETY NOT GUARANTEED

HOSTILE DEMONSTRATION WAS CERTAIN.

London, Oct. 10.—The approaching visit of a British deputation to St. Petersburg for the purpose of presenting an address of sympathy to Prof. Serge Mouroumseloff of Moscow, who was president of the lower house of the late parliament, is arousing a storm of indignation and protest both here and in St. Petersburg, and strong influences are being brought to bear to induce the deputation to abandon its visit, on the grounds that the presentation of a memorial of sympathy with the late parliament would be an unwarranted act of interference, calculated to lead to violence. The deputation includes half a dozen members of the house of commons and social reformers, and it plans to take an address signed by 200 persons, including members of the house of lords and house of commons, numerous representatives of the clergy and persons prominent in literature.

Although the British government does not give the slightest countenance to the movement, yet official St. Petersburg recalls Premier Bannerman's tribute to the late parliament and constructs the parliament as representing British official and public opinion.

Plan Abandoned.

The representatives received here represent the Russian government as announced, and show the threatening attitude of the Russian elements friendly to the old regime, who are preparing hostile demonstrations. Many of the influential members of the address have been withdrawing their names and urging the abandonment of the proposed visit, while a member of the deputation, Donald Mackenzie Smolton, M. P., has declined to go, and is advising postponement. W. F. Stead has made appeal to the deputation to stand as home, as the visit would result in violence and political complications.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the visit met and decided to abandon the visit to Moscow and to await further advice from the Anglo-Russian friendship committee in St. Petersburg, which will be received tomorrow and then considered.

Pressure Applied.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 10.—What is described here tonight as the "gigantic fizzle" of the much heralded visit to Moscow and St. Petersburg of a British deputation to present an address of sympathy to the dissolved parliament is another blow to the Constitutional Democrats, who were arranging a reception to the deputation as a brilliant success in the campaign. This proposed visit was extremely embarrassing to the British ambassador, Sir Arthur Nicholson, in view of the negotiations for a treaty between Russia and Great Britain. Pressure was brought to bear in London to stop the movement, and it was decided not to receive the deputation officially at the embassy here. This desire is given out by the British consul at Moscow, who declared that the members of the deputation were not known and that the proposed visit was in bad taste.

TURNED ON THE JOKER.

(Tit-Bits.)

A laughable but rather embarrassing case of mistaken identity occurred the other day in a large draper's shop. A gentleman who is a little too fond of joking entered the shop for the purpose of meeting his wife at a certain counter. Sure enough, there stood a lady dressed to his eye, at least—just like the woman he was after.

Her back was turned, and no one was near her, so he quietly approached, kissed her, and the arm, and said, in a voice of simulated severity:

"Well, here you are, spending my money as usual, eh?"

The fact turned quickly toward him was not his wife's; it was that of an acrid, angry, keen-eyed woman of about 30 years, who attracted the attention of everybody in that part of the shop by saying in a loud, shrill voice:

"No, I ain't spending your money or no other man's money, and I'll—"

"I beg your pardon, madam," cried the confused gentleman. "I supposed you were my wife."

"Well, I just ain't your wife, nor no other man's wife, thank fortune, to be jawed at every time I buy a yard of ribbon! I pity your wife if you go about shaking her like you did me. If I was her, I'd—"

The chagrined joker waited to hear no more, but made his way out of the shop, amid the titters and sly chuckles of those who had witnessed his confusion.

RAILROAD INDICTED.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 10.—The federal grand jury today returned three separate indictments against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad company charging violation of the act making it unlawful to discriminate against an employee who is in the service of such common carrier because of having joined a labor organization or corporation.

The Order of Railroad Telegraphers, it is understood, furnished evidence on which the indictments are based.

PLUMBERS INDICTED.

Lima, O., Oct. 10.—Sensational returns were made by the grand jury here today in the indictment of eleven plumbers, charged on charges of "conspiracy against trade."

NEGROES HAVE A COMPLAINT

Want to Travel in the Same Pullmans With Their White Brothers.

CLAIM LAW IS VIOLATED

ASK COMMERCE COMMISSION TO INTERFERE.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Representative negroes of the south, on behalf of their race, have complained to the inter-state commerce commission of the use by railroads of the south of "Jim Crow" cars for interstate passengers, and have requested the commissioner to investigate the subject and on the development of the facts to issue an order compelling the railroads not to discriminate against negroes on account of their color.

The petition filed with the inter-state commerce commission is signed by Thomas Oliver and W. P. Johnson of Mississippi and about a dozen other negroes. It says in part:

"Under present conditions colored interstate passengers are denied equal privileges with white interstate passengers. Colored passengers are crowded into the railroads of the south to ride in what are commonly known as 'Jim Crow' cars, which are usually filthy and uncomfortable. They are denied the right to eat in railway dining cars and occupy berths in sleeping cars because of their color, all of which is a violation of the Hepburn railroad rate regulation law passed at the recent session of congress."

Negro Urged to Fight.

New York, Oct. 10.—"Such men as Hoke Smith, John Temple Graves, Vardaman and Tillman ought not to be able to obtain any service from the colored man," said G. V. Villard, in an address before the Afro-American council now in session here. Mr. Villard also declared that in his opinion no negro should think of contributing as much as one cent to the support of the anti-negro newspapers in Georgia. He urged the negro to organize, to band together for his defense and to fight for his rights.

"The time is ripe for serving notice on the country," said he, "that further efforts in any section of the land to degrade the negro to a servile position, to create that impossible thing, a republic with millions of persons taxed, but not represented, shall be fought from now on. Leave the murdering in cold blood to the race that proudly calls itself the superior, the better civilized."

DEMOCRATS NAME COUNTY AND LEGISLATIVE TICKET

For county recorder Cuthbert L. Olson named Stephen L. Moyie, David O. Wilkey, Jr., former assistant city attorney, Michael J. Cunningham, whom he loved and who was an entente with this ticket," he concluded.

John W. Burton nominated Thomas A. Olson, former recorder, and said that he was placed in an embarrassing position, because he felt it the duty of a Democrat not to reject a nomination. He said the delegates were entitled to consideration, but as a favor to himself and to the other friends he asked they vote for the other candidate.

On the call for the vote of the Seventy-ninth caucus, Olson withdrew and Moyie was given the nomination.

Asbury Snow was named for attorney by F. B. Stephens. The nomination was made by the caucus and he, too, was nominated by acclamation.

George M. Bacon was nominated for surveyor by John S. Critchlow. This nomination followed the course of that taken by the caucus and he, too, was nominated by acclamation.

James T. Lynch was named by Joseph W. Stephens for assessor. This was also by acclamation.

The county committee was empowered to fill all vacancies. The roster was adopted as the party emblem and adjournment was taken at 12:04 a. m.

HARPER FOR JUSTICE.

Nominated at the Convention of City Delegates.

The city precinct committee met in caucus immediately before the county convention was called to order. County chairman M. J. Cunningham, who called the caucus to order, was nominated by the chairman of the caucus. He stated that he was not a delegate. "You may have my proxy," said a delegate, and Mr. Cunningham was chosen unanimously.

Will J. Korth was selected as secretary of the caucus and the business was taken up of selecting nominees for justice of the peace and constable.

Cuthbert L. Olson nominated Harry S. Harper, who was nominated as a popular young newspaper man, and Walter J. Sloan made a second speech. Former Mayor Richard P. Morris nominated Martin S. Lindsay, and Milande Pratt seconded the nomination. A number of other seconding speeches were made for both Mr. Lindsay and Milande Pratt.

City Councilman F. S. Fernstrom gave Harper the full measure of praise, bespeaking his popularity with all classes and all parties.

While the caucus was in progress a large picture of William Jennings Bryan was displayed on the stage. The delegates applauded heartily.

On the first ballot Harper had 189 votes and Lindsay 89 votes.

Mr. Lindsay appeared on the platform and asked that the election of Harper be made unanimous. He declared that he had not asked for a vote and said it was an honor to be defeated by a man of such sterling worth as H. S. Harper. Upon motion the caucus adjourned.

MERCURY A DECEPTIVE TREATMENT

Mercury and potash are very deceptive treatments and the blood poison sufferer who depends on them for a cure is sure to be disappointed. These minerals will remove the external symptoms and shut the disease up in the system for a while, but the trouble will surely return and the loathsome symptoms of sore mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers etc., will be accompanied by the disastrous effects of the treatment. The continued use of these strong minerals will completely ruin the health and weaken the system to such an extent that the original disease often becomes incurable and sometimes fatal. Mercury and potash eat out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, destroy the gastric juices, producing chronic dyspepsia, cause mercurial Rheumatism, salivation, and where they are taken in large quantities cause necrosis or decay of the bones. S. S. S. is the only remedy that can cure Contagious Blood Poison surely and safely. This remedy of nature, made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, antidotes and destroys the powerful virus of the disease and by purifying the blood of every particle of the poison and enriching and strengthening this vital fluid it removes every symptom and leaves the body in a strong, healthy condition. When the blood has been purified with S. S. S. the cure is complete, and not one vestige of the poison is left for future outbreaks. Do not waste valuable time, and damage your health with the mineral treatment, but cure your case with S. S. S., an absolutely safe remedy. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral. Book with instructions for self treatment and medical advice without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Convention Notes.

The Women's Democratic club entertained the women delegates to the convention at luncheon at Franklin's during the evening recess.

A woodpecker which had flown into the convention hall before the convention was called to order, was seen by a Republican spectator. "It's a raven," he said, "croaking 'Never more' for you. 'You're wrong' is a loyal Democrat. 'It's a dove of peace.'"
